WE STILL OFFER

Our home "Riverview" for sale. This property is not equalled in the state at the price that we offer it for. To any one wanting a home with every modern improvement, located superbly, with ample grounds surrounding it and at a price below cost, this is the golden chance.

We offer this property for sale solely because it is too large for us to occupy and our desire is to build a smaller one. If we can sell this within the next 15 days (before May 1st), we will do so on the easiest of terms. If not sold previous to May 1st we shall begin house-keeping in it and withdraw it from the market.

Yours very truly,
Geo. L. & Sarah H. Carrington.

For An Investment

We have a property centrally located, rented for $21.50 per month, payable in advance. It is sure to rent for this or more for all time. This is over eight and a half per cent, on the price we ask for it. There is a mortgage of $1600 to run 3 or 5 years at seven per cent.

Our price is $3000; $1000 cash, $400 to be secured on the property ten years at seven per cent. Let's figure it out, it will take $140 a year to pay your interest on the $2000; taxes say $15; insurance $5. Take this amount $160 in all from the $258 rental and it leaves you $98 net for the use of your $1000. Besides this the property is sure to advance from $200 to $500 within 5 years. It is worth looking into.

Yours very truly,

HER WARRIOR IS GONE.

Germany in Mourning For Her Greatest Soldier.

SUDDEN DEATH OF COLT VON MOLTKE.

Grief in the Fatherland at the Close of the Veteran's Career—A Short Account of the Noted Man's Military Achievements.

MANY HONORABLE YEARS.
BERLIN, April 25.—General von Moltke, one of the great historic figures of the German empire, died suddenly Friday night at his residence in this city. He was an interested spectator of the proceedings in the reichstag Friday afternoon, and appeared in excellent health, laughing and chatting pleasantly with Chancellor von Caprivi and several members of the reichstag. After the session he lingered in the lobby a few minutes conversing with a number of army officers, and then was driven to his residence. At 9:30 o'clock Friday night his physicians were summoned, but on their arrival a few minutes later they found the general dead and pronounced the cause heart disease. While the general was sitting in his chair reading he suddenly gasped and without a word expired. The family entertained hopes that he could be resuscitated but the physicians at once determined that he was dead. The news spread rapidly through the city and on every hand created the most profound sorrow.

General Helmuth von Moltke.

profound sorrow. Emperor William, whose love for the old soldier amounted almost to idolatry, shed tears when he heard of the general's death, and immediately ordered that extensive preparations be made to show the esteem in which he was held by the nation. Residences and business places in Berlin are already being draped, and the city presents a spectacle similar to that of the funeral of the late Emperor William and Emperor Frederick. Telegrams of condolence have been received from all the large cities of the empire and from the various courts of Europe, all paying tribute to the general's worth as a citizen and a soldier. Emperor Francis Joseph has already announced his intention of being present at the funeral. King Umberto, of Italy, expresses deep sorrow and says the general was the foremost soldier of the century. The funeral will probably take place on Tuesday.

Helmuth Karl von Moltke was descended from a well-known Mecklenburg family. He was born at Parchim on October 26, 1800, after his birth his parents settled in Holstein and in his 19th year he was sent to Copenhagen to devote himself to the military profession. In 1829 he entered the Prussian service as a lieutenant and studied in the military academy. In 1830 he took a tour in Turkey, where he brought him under the notice of the sultan, who advised with him on the reorganization of the Turkish army. He remained several months in Turkey and in 1830 took part in the campaign of the Turks in Syria against the Egyptians. He was promoted to major in 1835, having returned to Prussia and published an account of his Turkish experiences, he became adjutant to Prince Henry of Prussia, a chief and the prince of the campaign was engaged with the general command on the Rhine, becoming in 1848 a member of the grand general staff and in 1849 chief of the staff of the army corps in Magdeburg. In 1858 he was advanced to the rank of chief of the staff of the general staff of the Prussian army, and in 1859 became a lieutenant general. In the Austro-Italian war Moltke was present in the Austrian headquarters, and after the conclusion of peace spared no pains to develop the capacity of the Prussian army. When the war of 1864 against Denmark broke out Moltke was placed at the head of the campaign and assisted in its execution. The whole plan of the Bohemian campaign was due to Moltke, who was personally present in the battle of Koniggratz, where he led. He in like manner arranged the bold advance of the Prussian columns against Olmitz and Vienna and negotiated the preliminaries of peace. For these services he received the order of the Black Eagle. To the brilliant strategy of "Father Moltke," as he was termed in the German army, the victories in the Franco-German war were ascribed. He was practically the commander in chief and the whole plan of campaign was due to him. In recognition of his services he was made chief marshal of the German empire in 1871 and was created count in 1872. From the czar he received the military decoration of the order of St. George in 1870 and from his own sovereign the grand cross of the order of the Iron Cross in 1871.

FLOWERS FOR BEN.

Novel Floral Spectacles Witnessed in California by President Harrison and His Fellow Travelers.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 25.—A drizzling rain interfered somewhat with the pleasure of the presidential party Friday morning. The president rose about 8 o'clock, and after breakfast at Pasadena he and the members of his party, with Gov. Markham and those accompanying him, were driven about the principal streets of the town and through several orange groves. The route of the drive was past the residences of Gov. Markham and Mayor Luken. At a prominent street corner a large floral arch had been erected, and near this the school children of the city, more than a thousand in number, had assembled. As the president appeared they threw thousands of roses, calla lilies and orange blossoms in the pathway of his carriage and fairly filled the vehicle with flowers. Immediately after their return to the hotel the party went to the train, leaving for Los Angeles at 11 o'clock. After leaving Pasadena the train stopped for a few minutes at San Fernando, where the president made a short speech. The next stopping place was Santa Paula, where the president was cordially received. Here was displayed the most solid floral piece the party has seen since it left Washington. It was in the form of a sign board, 12 feet long and 3 feet wide, and was made entirely of calla lilies. Across its face was the word "Welcome" in large letters of red geraniums. A committee boarded the train and presented the president with a 5-foot model of an oil derrick made of choice flowers. A speech was demanded and the president responded briefly.

A procession was formed at the station composed of a cavalcade of Spanish citizens in their native costumes, the local grand army post, and a brigade of children and citizens in gayly decorated carriages. The party was first escorted to the Promenade des Anglais, a beautiful drive bordered on both sides with mountains dotted with picturesque villas.

Here they witnessed a battle of flowers—a spectacle new to this country, but familiar to all visitors to Nice during carnival week. The engagement was formed at the station composed of a cavalcade of Spanish citizens in their native costumes, the local grand army post, and a brigade of children and citizens in gayly decorated carriages. The party was first escorted to the Promenade des Anglais, a beautiful drive bordered on both sides with mountains dotted with picturesque villas.

DRIVEN FROM HOME.

Many Families Evicted by Officers in the Coked Region.

SCOTTSBURG, Pa., April 25.—There was more excitement at the coke works Friday as a result of the many evictions than there has been for many months. Deputy Crawford, with a large body of assistants and guarded by Company C, began throwing out a dozen families. White's in the morning, including one of the notorious "Soup house." The evicting party then marched to Morgan's, attended by several hundred strikers. At the very outskirts a wild-eyed Hun struck Deputy Hull with a stone. This was followed by a shower of stones from a gang of children. House No. 5, occupied by Michael McEnery, a local leader, was soon reached, and Company C formed a circle about it, keeping back the crowd that now had grown to enormous proportions. Mrs. McEnery was in delicate health, but when Deputy Dickson grabbed a chair she flew at him, when he lost his head, drew two bulldog revolvers, and after calling her a vile name threatened to shoot. Cries of "shame" and "coward" from guards and strikers alike overawed the fellow and he slunk away. The woman amused herself by thumping Deputy Skyles on the ribs with a jug, then sat down amidst her household goods in the road and wept contentedly. Then the deputies went to Summit, where sixteen families were unhoused without much trouble.

FLOODS IN PERU.

Wholesale Destruction of Property—People Driven from Their Homes by the Waters.

PANAMA, April 25.—Reports from Peru tell of disastrous rainstorms and floods. Between March 1 and 22 eleven rainstorms swept over Lima-bay and the surrounding country. The river of the same name in the town increased to enormous proportions and flooded the country all around for nearly 30 miles. The villages of Jayanca, Olmes, Motupe, Pacora, Tucum, Mochumi and Moropne have been inundated, and many houses have fallen down. The churches at Jayanca and Moropne fell down while several small towns suffered severely. Not a single raft of the Chimbote & Suchiman railroad remains in place on many miles of the embankments.

Hume Clay Gets Eight Years.

A BLUE-COAT MOB

Soldiers Storm Prison Walls at Walla Walla, Washington.

Lynch Law Brought Into Play to Avenge a Comrade's Murder.

They Attack the Jail and Riddle His Murderer with Bullets—A Battle with the Prison Guards in Which Several Persons Were Killed.

A BLOODY CONFLICT.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 25.—Word comes from Walla Walla of a bloody conflict between 150 soldiers and a sheriff's guard, in which the latter while repelling an attack on the jail by the troops fired upon them with deadly effect, the soldiers answering with a volley which moved down a number of the citizens acting as guards. The peculiarity of the affair is that it was probably the first instance recorded in which soldiers armed and well formed, have resorted to mob violence against the civil authorities. On Wednesday night A. J. Hunt, a gambler, whose reputation was bad even among his companions, became engaged in an altercation with Private Miller and struck him in the face. Miller returned the blow and was getting the best of the fight when Hunt drew a revolver from his hip pocket and shot Miller dead. A mob at once collected and an attempt was made to lynch the murderer, but he was hurried to jail by the authorities, who determined that the law should take its course. Talk of lynching has been heard on the streets ever since the murder, and the sheriff, fearing an attempt would be made to take the prisoner out, and lynch him, swore in a number of citizens as special deputies, armed them with rifles and placed them inside the jail with instructions to guard the prisoner at all hazards. Friday night the jail, a strong structure, was surrounded by fully 500 soldiers, who demanded the surrender of Hunt. The sheriff refused, but words were exchanged, and several of the more impetuous deputies fired upon the soldiers, who answered with a volley. The die patches say half a dozen persons were killed and many wounded. Whether they were citizens or soldiers is not known. After the shooting the soldiers are reported to have battered down the door of the jail and riddled Hunt with bullets.

STRIKERS JUBILANT.

The Detroit Street Car Company Finally Agrees to Arbitrate—Sympathy with the Men.

DETROIT, Mich., April 25.—At a late hour Friday afternoon the secretary of the City Railway Company addressed a letter to Mayor Plafie accepting his suggestion to arbitrate the present trouble between the company and its employees. The letter, which is ambiguous in its wording, has thrown considerable light upon the troubled waters, and it is thought the strike will be a thing of the past within the next forty-eight hours. The strikers are jubilant at the turn matters have taken and the city rings with their shouts as one of their impromptu bosses passes from time to time. Public sympathy is entirely with the men, and the various parts of the city for them during the last two days. It is not thought that any attempt to run cars will be made till the committee on arbitration reports.

Death of "Cool" White.

CHICAGO, April 25.—"Cool" White, the veteran minstrel and for the past seven years stage manager of Hooley's theater, died Friday night, aged 69 years.

Mr. White was a contemporary of the Christies and Stephen Foster, who wrote "Swanee River." He was born in Philadelphia seventy years ago. He was at one time the best known "mid-dleman" or interlocutor in the country.

An Aged Couple Robbed.

CINCINNATI, April 25.—A Clarkburg (Va.) dispatch says: A land of masked robbers entered the house of an aged couple named Sutton, at Cassville, Monongahalia county, and placing revolvers at their heads robbed them of $1,600. A portion of the robbers guarded Sutton while the others got out eatables and lunched. Both Sutton and his wife are over 70 years old.

There Were Two Victims.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Two persons are known to have lost their lives in the fire on Chicago avenue Thursday afternoon. Old Mrs. Bjornson perished in her house on South Street and the infant son of Gustave Swanson was burnt to death on the second floor of the tenement at 841 West Chicago avenue.

REFORM SHOULD BE EXPLAINED

The Recorder should remember that Hon. Cyrus Miner, while a member of the legislature two years ago, did not attempt to pass any act tending to increase the taxes of his constituents, therefore there is no reason for him to explain to his constituents. However, he is ready, even at this late day, to explain fully his every vote. Let the member of the assembly from this district tell the people of the First and Second wards, why their ward taxes are to be increased; and to the people of the city at large, why their state and county tax is to be increased at least one-fifth. He is certainly able to explain this because it is declared to be a "reform," and anyone who has marched under the Wall banner, however unwillingly, must understand how reforms are brought about.

The democratic organs throughout the state are turning up for the purpose of explaining to the people why the late legislature failed to carry out the many reforms promised during the last political canvass, why taxations were not decreased, and why taxation was not decreased. They start out with their explanations very well. One organ, a little out of tune, yet playing up in "G," gives as a reason why many of the so-called sincere officers were not abolished, that there were "too many hungry office seekers begging for place; and then, the democratic party did not pledge itself to abolish all the offices." Very clever excuse.

Even democratic observers are forced to admit as they look back over the record that the principal measures for reform originated in the republican side and were killed by the democrats. Among these were the various railroad bills, the anti-trust bill, and the bill asking the attorney general to give an opinion as to the liability of the board of the state treasurer when funds are loaned in violation of law. Increased appropriations and a longer session brought forth very few of the reforms that were so loudly promised.

A long delayed act of justice was done by the late congress in raising the salaries of United States district judges. Unfortunately, through an oversight this seems without excuse, no appropriation was made to cover the additional expenditure involved. The judges will get their money by-and-by, of course, but it will not be forthcoming in time for their summer vacations this year.

The Madison Democrat tries to excuse the disgraceful proceedings in the assembly Tuesday night by saying that the same thing was done by republicans in the past. The Democrat will not find it an easy task to point out a republican speaker who mounted to the top of his desk and threw books, trumblers and ice water at the members and the ladies in the room.

One of the great reform measures adopted by the late democratic legislature will be illustrated for the especial benefit of Wisconsin people at the World's Fair in Chicago. Few people will point to the picture with pride.

The late "reform legislature" evidently had an eye open to business when it abolished the law providing for a recount of ballots. All ballots must now be destroyed immediately after election, and all evidence of crookedness obliterated.

Frenchmen will now rest easy—General Von Moltke is dead.

Deafness Can't be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking HALL'S CATARRH CURE. Send for circulars, free. J. C. HANCOCK & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

Now Try This.
It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a Cough, Cold, or any trouble with Throat, Chest or Lungs. Sufferers from Lung trouble find it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and permanent recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. ## SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

The Senate's President Pro Tempore, Charles F. Manderson, United States senator from Nebraska, who was chosen to succeed John James Ingalls as president of the senate pro tempore, is a native of Philadelphia, and has led a life of action. He went to Ohio to study law when he was nineteen, was colonel of the Nineteenth Ohio regiment, U. S. V., when twenty-five, was obliged to resign in 1865 because of his wounds, and was afterward breveted brigadier general. Then he resumed the practice of law in Canton, O., but in 1869 went to Nebraska, where he became active in politics and was elected to the United States senate, and has served ever since.

EXTRACTS.
FROM A FAMOUS LECTURE ON CATARRH, DISEASES BY DR. S. B. HARTMAN, COLUMBUS, OHIO.

CHRONIC CATARRH, COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, LA GRIPPE, AND MANY OTHER COMMON AFFECTIONS FULLY EXPLAINED AND TREATMENT GIVEN.

The disease known as Catarrh is capable of setting up in the body such a variety of derangements that there are a large group of diseases commonly thought to be dissimilar, but which are really different forms of the same disease. The different names by which the catarrhal affections have come to be known have the effect of leading most people to suppose each one to be an entirely different disease. To illustrate: What is generally known as "a cold" is really acute catarrh of the (sporadic variety). Epidemic catarrh assumes three different phases, known as Influenza, Distemper and La Grippe, each one presenting different symptoms, yet there is no essential difference in their nature or successful treatment. Inflammation of the eyes and middle ear are simply catarrh of the mucous lining of these organs. Pharyngitis and Laryngitis (sore throat) are both catarrh, although the symptoms produced by them are quite different. Bronchitis, catarrh of the bronchial tubes and consumption is in the majority of cases but catarrh of the lungs. Dyspepsia, diarrhea, dysentery, inflammation of the bladder and other pelvic organs are nearly always due to catarrh of these parts.

Thus it will be seen that the group of diseases properly included under the head of catarrh is a very large and important one, and any remedy that so operates on the system as to cure catarrh of any variety can be relied upon as a remedy in all other varieties of the disease. It is established beyond all question that Pe-r-u-na is by far the most celebrated, if not the only specific remedy for catarrhal diseases, the dose and times of taking the remedy, after according to the variety of catarrh for which it is taken.

It is a common cold, a wineglassful of Pe-r-u-na, taken in hot water, at the beginning of the attack, followed by a tablespoonful every three hours until the symptoms all subside, is the proper treatment. In cases of La Grippe, Distemper and Influenza, the dose is a tablespoonful every hour for adults, and a spoon-feeding less for children. During the night, if the patients are quietly sleeping, it is not my custom to wake them to take the medicine; but if restless Pe-r-u-na should be given regularly the whole twenty-four hours.

In cases of sore throat, bronchitis and consumption it is better to add two ounces of rock candy to each bottle before using; then take according to directions on the bottle. This is also the proper way to use Pe-r-u-na in all cases where a cough is a permanent symptom. In cases of dyspepsia and diseases of the abdominal and pelvic organs, the directions on the bottle are sufficient. Cases of chronic catarrh in the head, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach and pelvic organs, of ten, fifteen, or even twenty years' standing, are constantly being cured by the use of Pe-r-u-na. It has come to be a well-established fact that Pe-r-u-na will cure catarrh in any stage or variety where the case is not complicated by any organic disease.

A valuable pamphlet of thirty-two pages, setting forth in detail the treatment of catarrh in every phase of the disease, will be sent free to any address by the Per-nu Medicine Company of Columbus, Ohio. This book should be in every household, as it contains a great deal of reliable information as to the cure and prevention of all catarrhal and kindred diseases.

BALMACEA'S LIFE.

The Rebellious Chilians Declare Their President Must Be Hanged Before They Will Lay Down Their Arms.
PANAMA, April 25.—A dispatch from Iquique dated the 8th inst. says that the news has just been received there that Arica and Tarapaca had been taken. All of the Tarapaca department is now in the hands of the congressional party, who also control all of the northern portion of Chili as far south as Copiapo. There was no fighting, the government forces having fled toward the frontier of Bolivia.

Provisions were recently so scarce in Iquique that $20 was paid for a can of preserved milk and beef sold at $10 per pound. These prices were caused by the port being blockaded by the rebel Chilean squadron. The officers and crews of these vessels stand that they have signed a round robin binding themselves not to lay down arms until they hang President Balmaceda in the principal square in Santiago.

The schooner Clelia, which has arrived from Iquique, Pisagua and Molle, brings terrible details of the combat at Poso Almonte March 7 between the government forces and the rebels. The whole of the regular army was routed and broken in pieces, with the exception of the cavalry, which, 700 strong, retired toward Bolivia, hoping to join the forces which it was expected were marching from Tarapaca. The Balmaceda ironclads Almirante, Lynch, Condell and the Pilcomayo, were in Valparaiso with their crews, which are principally composed of foreigners, who have declared they would remain neutral. Approximate calculations make the revolutionary forces in Tarapaca number 8,000, without counting the men of the Balmaceda forces who have joined the revolutionary cause.

Five thousand men were engaged in the Poso Almonte affair, and it is said that about 500 of the government forces and 800 of the revolutionary forces were killed and wounded in that sanguinary struggle. The German steamer Setos landed in Valparaiso 73 refugees from Iquique. At Valparaiso women and young girls distributed bulletins adverse to the government and in favor of the revolution. The following narrative is from the pen of a newspaper correspondent:
On the 4th Martin Larraín arrived here. At 6:30 a. m. on the morning of the 24th upward of 3,000 workmen collected at the Poso Almonte in order to proceed to Iquique and make a formal representation respecting the security of provisions. Shortly after they reached the works the manager, Mr. William Johnson, gave them ten barrels of biscuits and 1,000 lbs. of preserves, which were distributed among the strikers. They remained there that night and on the following day sent some of their leaders on to Nerpio. There more men were to be collected. Suddenly, however, a train appeared loaded with government troops under Martin Larraín. Without halting or parleying, these troops opened fire on the defenseless workmen, women and children. Shortly afterward the forces marched forward and killed all the men. Meanwhile the men from the Nerpio works with the commissioners from Ramirez returned to their houses, otherwise they might also have fallen victims. Some who escaped from the slaughter took refuge in the nitrate fields, but were subsequently followed up and killed. After these deeds had been committed about 80 men were arrested, and of this number eighteen were murdered.

ILLINOIS.

The House Rejects the Republican Compulsory Education Measure.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 25.—The minority report on the education bill now being considered by the house of representatives, which was submitted by the committee on education, was rejected by a vote of 76 to 58. Four republicans voted with the majority and two democrats with the minority. The effect of the vote is that fifty-eight members say that a school shall not be a school under the law unless reading and writing are taught in the English language, while seventy-six members declare that it shall. In the senate the bill for the prevention and punishment of the manufacture and sale of adulterated food products was passed. Mr. Newell's bill, providing for the gross weighing of coal at the mines, was read a third time and failed of passage, the vote being 24 yeas to 80 nays, not the requisite twenty-six yeas. The senate adjourned to 5 o'clock Monday.

Disappointed Miners.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 25.—The coal miners of the state in session here were greatly disappointed at the non-appearance of the coal operators at the joint meeting arranged for Friday. At the appointed time the miners were all present, but the operators who were expected failed to appear. It was resolved that no place should be commingled for the operators until they get official notification from the state officers. The action of the convention is generally accepted as meaning a general strike of the coal miners of the state May 1.

Swallowed a Book Literally.

A negro school-teacher in Floyd county, Ga., had a novel experience with one of his pupils recently. Here is his story: "I tried not long ago to impress upon my pupils the necessity of acquiring knowledge. 'You must make yourselves familiar with books,' I said. 'In fact you must swallow books.' Of course I spoke figuratively, but that night the father of one of my pupils called to see me in great distress. 'Tom,' he gasped, 'have done swallowed a book and I'm feared he gwine to choke to death! Yo' better come 'n fish it out o' him!' I went in a hurry. Tom, a poor fellow too ignorant to be anything but a literal soul, had chewed up and swallowed part of a Webster's primary dictionary. I sent for a doctor and it required two hours of his most skillful work to save Tom's life."—Chicago Times.

"Yes, somewhat, but I never saw a bird after it had got through singing sit down to a table and have a cup of tea or four cups of tea, half a ham and enough cake and ice cream to founder a mule. You never saw a lark do that, did you?"—Texas Siftings.

to every one who needs one. If they suggest a Cab to you, have you stopped to think just what you want in it? We have thought about it long ago—thought out just what you want, the style and cost. We've thought of more than that. You'll want not only beauty, but strength and durability—but you cannot often find the latter. Strength requires care from the maker, and care costs. The Cabs we show come from a maker whose stock in trade is the durability of his goods. He warrants them; we warrant them. We would be more disappointed than you would if they were not up to standard. Those Cabs we offer you at just the cost of poorer ones.

CARS WILL RUN.

The Line To Be In Operation
Within a Very Few Days Hence.

Union Trust Company of Chicago Stands Behind
The Enterprise.

Five New Cars To Be Added at Once—J. J. Comstock
As Superintendent.

Janeville's street railway, which has been idle and out of repair since last December, will be in operation again in a few days.

This time it will be under new management and with greatly increased facilities.

The Union Trust Company, of Chicago, is now in possession of the road, and it will be operated in the future under the management of that company.

L. B. Wilks, representing the company, was in the city to-day, looking over the road and stock, making necessary arrangements to put the track in order, and to resume operations on the line. The road is to be put in complete order throughout, five new cars will be added at once to the rolling stock, two of which will be large open or summer cars. These will make nine cars in all.

Cars will hereafter be run on regular time and at frequent intervals, and managed to accommodate the patrons of the road. If the nine cars are not sufficient to meet the demands of the public, additional cars will be put on at once.

Men are to be put to work next week putting the road in order, and as soon as this work is completed the cars will be put on and kept running.

John J. Comstock, of this city, has been tendered the local management of the road, but has not yet notified the company of his acceptance, he being absent from home. The managers are reasonably sure, however that he will accept the position.

There has been some talk about extending the line down Main street and around Spring Brook, and back by the way of South Jackson street, but this has been all talk so far as the owners of the road are concerned. And yet such an extension is not at all unlikely to follow the completion of the Jackson street bridge.

BOBBY GAYLOR IN MADISON.

"An Irish Arab" Well Liked by Capital City Playgoers.

"The Irish Arab" was given by "Bobby" Gaylor's company at the Madison opera house last night to a good houseful. "Gaylor was immensely grotesque," says the Madison Journal, "and was heartily appreciated." This afternoon all the seats were cleared from the stage at the Myers' and the Gaylor force began preparations for the Janeville presentation. A card of special scenery is carried and a noteworthy performance is promised. Of the appearance of the piece in Chicago, the Herald says:

"Never was a title and play in more perfect harmony. One cannot tell from the name, 'An Irish Arab,' just what to expect, and during the play it is still harder to decide just what is expected of yourself. I only know that to me the quiet, deep tragedy of the oriental nature, and the irresistible unconscious comedy of the Irish typical character were so finely portrayed that I was not sure whether I was the saddest when I laughed or the merriest when I felt the strongest twinge of sympathy for the woes of that earnestscintillating, oriental girl.

BARSTOWE HER FLESH.

A Second Ward Flower Girl Made to Jump
A Fence.

Plant thieves have already commenced their depredations, making night raids on flower gardens in the Second ward. Thursday night they paid their respects to L. M. Gilmore's residence on Glen street. The thief was a woman, and came out being captured.
She had secured some of the choicest plants in Mrs. Gilmore's collection before being discovered, and then in her hasty retreat she lost her slippers. In the chase she was crowded into rather close quarters, and in order to make her escape she jumped a barbed-wire fence with the agility of an athlete. The slippers she can have by calling on Mrs.
Gilmore, who will accommodate her with "slips" from any plants she has rather than have the whole collection stolen.

NO BANANAS FOR JANEVILLE.

Local Capitalists View With Disapproval
The Honduras Project.

Agents of a Honduras company spent considerable time in Janeville a few weeks ago endeavoring to persuade business men to invest in banana plantations. They finally gave up in disgust and are now in Walworth county where they seem to have more success. Four or five Elkhorn young men are talking strongly of going to Honduras.
They are told that banana plantations can be bought there for six dollars an acre, fruit can be had eight months after planting seeds and a crop is had every few months thereafter.

tobacco shed containing several cows and young cattle, two or three horses, buggy, farming tools and a quantity of hay and grain. The loss which amounts to several hundred dollars is only partly covered by a light insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

HERE IS THE GAME LAW

Amendments Interpreted For Janeville Sportsmen.

NO DOGS FOR TWO YEARS

Practice Chicken Shooting on Rock County Prairies is Therefore Not Likely to Flourish—Ducks Are the Only Game Birds Available.

Guns are booming and ducks at Lake Koshkonong are snatched with a charge of shot whenever they leave the open water.
From every innocent bunch of grass flame belches forth and some unlucky duck doubles up and falls into the water with a mighty splash.

But sportsmen must put in their time hunting ducks.
Ducks are practically the only feathered game they can shoot. The hunting of prairie chickens without a dog is a useless waste of time and the use of dogs is prohibited for two years.

Janeville sportsmen were completely at sea as to the condition the game law was in after watching amendments tacked on and sheered off and tacked on again.
The Gazette has taken occasion to secure the full text of the law, with all its amendments. As it now stands the law may be thus summarized:

It is unlawful to take, catch, kill, or have in possession when killed or taken, any woodcock, quail, partridge, pheasant or ruffed grouse, prairie hen or prairie chicken, sharp-tailed grouse or grouse of any other variety, mallard, teal, snipe or plover, between the first day of December and the succeeding first day of September, and wild duck of any variety, or wild geese or brant of any variety, or any aquatic fowl, whatever, between the first day of May and the succeeding first day of September. It shall be unlawful to hunt with a dog or dogs, any quail, partridge, pheasant or ruffed grouse, prairie hen or prairie chicken, sharp-tailed grouse or grouse of any variety for a period of two years from and after the first day of September, 1891.

It is unlawful to kill or take by any kind of a contrivance or device whatever, or pursue with intent to kill, or take or worry, any deer, bear, badger, or fox, between the first day of December and the succeeding first day of November, or to hunt deer, bear, badger, or fox, with dog or dogs at any time; and it shall also be unlawful for any person or persons to sell or expose for sale, or have in possession for the purpose of exposing for sale any of the kind of game, birds, animals or venison protected by this act, after the expiration of eight days next succeeding the time limited and prescribed for the killing of any such birds or animals.

It is also unlawful to take, destroy or have in possession the eggs of any of the birds mentioned in this act, or of any

CHURCHES A THING OF THE PAST.

Rev. C. F. Elliott Sketches Religious Life in the Future.

Rev. C. F. Elliott will bid farewell to his congregation to-morrow. He leaves for the east Tuesday. At the Fortnightly Club banquet he discussed religious methods and said that he had preached the great gospel of joy—have a good time. Some thought a minister ought to practice what he preached, he declared with a quizzical smile, but he thought it sufficient for a minister to do the preaching and let his wife and other members of the congregation do the practicing. He looked forward to the time when the church would be a thing of the past, the priesthood abolished and men and women would meet to discuss the problems of life in a different manner from what they do now.

STOLE A HORSE? AND FLED.

A Thief's Flight to Janeville—J. E. Gleason Offered a Bargain.

A stolen horse is quartered in Sheriff Hogan's barn, and Marshal Ahleson and the sheriff are now looking for the thief.
Last Thursday a stranger hired a horse of Leverman Holmstrom, of Elkhorn. As he did not return in due time, Holmstrom decided that the stranger had stolen the outfit and telegraphed Janeville officers to be on the lookout. Yesterday the thief drove into Janeville, and wanted to trade horses with J. E.
Gleason. Gleason inspected him and reported the case to the police. Marshal Ahleson recovered the horse this morning, placed it in the sheriff's barn and is now looking for the thief.

A LUNATIC'S HOT RIDE.

Andrew J. Tewksberry Imprisoned in a Lime Car.

NIGHT RUN TO JANEVILLE

After Walking From Elgin to Harvard in the Rain His Wet Clothing Sticks to the Lime Dust in a Car and Causes Serious Burns.

A. J. Tewksberry, the insane man who was wandering about Janeville had an experience coming up from Harvard which he will not forget for some time.
He escaped from the Elgin asylum Tuesday and walked from Elgin to Harvard in a driving rain storm. He was soaking wet when he climbed into a freight car at Harvard. The car had been loaded with lime and when Tewksberry laid down his damp clothes moistened the lime.

Tewksberry was much exhausted by his long walk and when he climbed aboard the car he fell asleep in an instant. He was soon awakened by the hot lime dust, for the balance of the way he was compelled to stand up to keep the lime from burning him. It was dark, and although the car was running over the rails the frightened occupant could get no idea of where he was. Braced against the side of the car he stood until the train stopped in Janeville.

The story of Tewksberry's insanity is a peculiar one. Some years ago he was disappointed in love. Shortly after, his father died, leaving him the administrator of the will. Relatives, he insists, conspired against him and the strain of the disappointment and financial difficulties drove him crazy. He is an expert watchmaker, and for many years was employed in the Elgin Watch Factory.

Had he been able to evade the authorities for three months he could not have been taken back to the asylum until committed a second time and it was with the idea of hiding for three months that he escaped. He had hoped by the end of three months to be able to prove his sanity. He had many wild schemes in his head and while on his way to the asylum he talked constantly.

"People in Elgin all know me," he explained, "and I refer you to Wilson H.
Dor, cashier of the bank. I know him and he used to live in one of the houses that my folks owned. If I ever get away again they will not catch me. I have been a fool. But they will have to watch me closely; I will escape again."

"I wasn't sad in the Elgin asylum as in the Kanakkee, though," he admitted to Marshal Ahleson. "In Kanakkee they used to pound the inmates around like so many cattle. I was a little too smart for them. They didn't dare strike any one unless he struck first, and they never could get me to use my fists. But I used to use my tongue until some of the attendants had to clench their hands to keep from knocking me down."

What They Say of Powers in David Garrison.
"It was a masterly performance,"
New York World.

"His impersonations of Garrison were wonderful," New York Tribune.

"I have never seen such a continuous manifestation of power," Dr. F. W.
Gunsalus.

"Mr. Powers was a theatre in a nutshell, with all the harm taken out and all the good left in." FRANCES E. WILLARD.

"His task was a prodigious one, yet he accomplished with remarkable success," Philadelphia Ledger.

"His representations disarmed criticism," Boston Traveller.

If the above are not recommendations we have never seen any of anybody.
So to the opera house next Friday and you will see the greatest English actor that ever lived, perfectly impersonated.
